Damage by Josephine Hart, Paperback | Barnes & Noble®

Damage by Josephine Hart: a review. Damage is a tale of desperate erotic obsession, and its inevitable path to destruction. The narrative, told by the male protagonist, eminently respectable, and respected, cabinet minister Fleming, is clinical in its formality, in keeping with his social position. His life revolves around public service, and the care of his family and, at the heart of this seeming 'order' he is deeply unhappy.
