The oral board interview is a very common format in police and other law enforcement job interviews. In this type of interview, you'll answer questions for a panel—typically three to five people, a mix of other officers, lieutenants, sergeants, an HR representative, and possibly someone from the city council or otherwise representing the community.

How to Prepare for an Oral Board Interview

The best way to reduce doubt, fear, and anxiety is preparation. Preparation includes knowing what to expect, understanding the job interview questions (and what the interviewer really wants to know), and finally, practice.
